

SWAN'S NECK®

— Vodka —

Alambic Distilled From Grapes

August 2, 2007

San Francisco Chronicle

"Cocktails are the word here, and the Voila silences even the pickiest cocktailers with a blend of Swan's Neck Lemon Zest Vodka, Lillet and white grape juice that is just the right balance of floral and sweet..."

—Amanda Berne

December 7, 2006

THE NAPA VALLEY Register

"Swan's Neck is vodka velvet, so smooth and refreshing, with subtle flavors I often associate with minerality in wine."

—L. Pierce Carson

February 2007

Wine & Spirits

"...this French spirit starts off with fruity aromas and proceeds to a distinctly sweet, winery conclusion.

The texture is closer to that of an Echezeaux than a bottle of the cold clear stuff from points East.

A great sipping vodka?

Swan's Neck is certainly that."

—Amanda Berne

November 2007

THE PATERSONS TASTING PANEL

"...Swan's Neck Original is silky smooth in character, while sibling Swan's Neck Lemon Zest has the added tingle of fresh lemons. Try mixing these two half and half with just a drop of vermouth for an effortless Martini."

—Richard Carleton Hacker

March 14-20, 2007

SAN FRANCISCO GUARDIAN

"The grappka has a grander pedigree and, while potent, is silken in the throat."

—Paul Reidinger
